Introduction

Over the last couple years, I gradually came to realize through my prayer vigils that God had a special plan about which He was delighted. I have come to understand more and more that at present, God’s heart seeks to awaken Christians from their slumber to pray vigilantly and prepare for a victorious battle in the spiritual and real world against the forces of darkness, in what is ultimately God’s plan to prepare them to be His bride. In the future, when Christ’s network of intercessory soldiers has been established world-wide through us, we will all, at the same time and with the same vision, lift our prayers to the throne of God and receive His own vision and word.

I have published this prayer guide booklet for those who know that prayer is necessary but are unsure how or what to pray for, and thus hesitate. This booklet is a compilation of prayers from my church, as well as those I received last October from Kwangju Gospel Church’s own prayer guide. As you intensively read this booklet with a heart of prayer, you will find that the hours will fly by; your spirit will be revived, your soul and body restored. I have left space at the end of each chapter for your own prayer notes for your family, your church, and whatever else the Spirit presses onto your heart. As regards this booklet, I want nothing more than to see it shared amongst anyone and used to become victorious prayer warriors, and finally God’s bride.

One recommendation I would offer you, reader, is to find a quiet place in which to focus your heart, and pray before beginning this booklet. Here is an example of such a prayer: “Lord, I am about to engage in the intercessory prayer that delights Your heart. Block the demons’ interruptions and send Your angels to protect this prayer space. Help me to concentrate during this time of prayer, and help me to pray only through the Holy Spirit’s guidance. Let me develop a habit of daily prayer, and help me to pray without ceasing. This I pray in the name of Jesus.”

I pray that the fifty states of America and the world’s five oceans and six continents will be connected through a network of prayer. The foundational Bible verse for this network is John 3:30: “He must increase, but I must decrease.” If you send me your email address and phone number, it would be a great help to the establishment of this prayer network. You can contact me, Pastor Michael Park, at amisbuso@sbcglobal.net. My hope and blessing is for us to bring our hearts, minds, and strength together to unite in fervent prayer and become like Gideon’s soldiers, in whom God finds pleasure. God has delighted in this endeavor and has blessed me with additional content for this prayer booklet. I have incorporated into this new edition additional issues for which to repent, which I have received from Pastor Han Yanghoon of Sinkwang Church; we Koreans are all implicated in these sins, either directly or indirectly, as we are connected across the generations. I hope that as you pray through this book, you will be liberated from oppression and find freedom.

Shalom and Maranatha,
Pastor Michael Park

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Mission Statement of Antioch Missions International Church

1. To be the bride of the lamb of God, we must become mature saints who love Jesus Christ whole-heartedly (as Jesus Christ’s bondservants).
2. Mature saints must keep the faith until the Last Day and be victorious in spiritual battle through the Holy Spirit. They must daily lead holy lives in preparation for the welcoming of the bridegroom, Jesus Christ.

Prayer of the Blood of Jesus Christ

Thank you for praising and proclaiming the precious blood of Jesus Christ. I believe the blood of Jesus has the power to set me free from sins. The blood of Jesus has the power to overcome sins and defeat the dark spirit.
The blood of Jesus has the power to wash away all my sins.
The blood of Jesus has the power to remove all curses of sin.
The blood of Jesus has the power to cut chains off all my sins.

The blood of Jesus cleans my heart and makes me holy.
The blood of Jesus makes my evil mind go away.
The blood of Jesus melts my heart into tenderness and meekness.

The blood of Jesus makes my unclean heart go away. The blood of Jesus heals all my sicknesses and diseases. The blood of Jesus makes temptation and desire for sin disappear from my heart.

I believe that only the blood of Jesus has the power to cleanse filth and make unclean into holy. I now receive and drink the blood of Jesus. O, Lord, let your blood flow in my heart like a river.

O, Lord, let the eternal blood of life, the blood of truth, and the blood of righteousness flow in my life. Therefore, I will trust the blood of Jesus all my life. I will trust the words of the Lord all my life. I will trust the name of Jesus Christ and live victoriously in my life.

I will be a proud witness of the blood of Jesus all my life.
I pray in the holy name of Jesus Christ. Amen and Amen.

In the name of Jesus, I command the destruction of Satan and his plans and activities that cause me to stumble. In the name of Jesus, I cast out my laziness and idleness. In the name of Jesus, I cast out my heart of disobedience and declare my obedience and faithfulness.

In the name of Jesus, I cast out all my heart’s worries and anxieties, and fill my heart with peace and thanksgiving. In the name of Jesus, I cast out my fleshly desires. Fill me with the Holy Spirit. In the name of Jesus, I command the power of Satan that attacks me to be burned away by the consuming fire of the Holy Spirit.

In the name of Jesus, I command carelessness and laziness to leave my heart, and I command my heart to be sober. In the name of Jesus, I send all the angels in Heaven to the homes and workplaces of Christians. In the name of Jesus, I cast out my fears and doubts, and command my heart to be filled with faith and boldness.

In the name of Jesus, let my heart be filled by the Holy Spirit with power, love, faith, and soberness. In the name of Jesus, let my fleshly thoughts be gone so that I am led only by the Holy Spirit. In the name of Jesus, let the Peace of Jesus Christ empower my heart.
In the name of Jesus, I command all the churches to repent. In the name of Jesus, let all the churches awake and prepare for the second coming of Jesus Christ. In the name of Jesus, let all the churches realize and obey Jesus’ heart.

Sinner’s Prayer for Acceptance

Lord Jesus Christ, I confess I am a sinner.
Forgive me all my sins.

I believe Jesus Christ is the son of God and shed His blood on the cross to forgive my sins.

I believe in Jesus’ resurrection from the dead.
I give all my body, heart, and spirit to You completely.

I oppose all that Satan and evil spirits have done in my life thus far.

Jesus Christ, come into my life and be the master of my life. Let me live eternally with you.

This I pray in the name of Jesus, who died for me on the cross and was resurrected.

10 Acts of Christ’s Love for Us
Writing and reading this repeatedly will fill you with conviction and joy.

When we believe in Jesus’ love, this brings Him the greatest joy. Love is possible through faith.

- First love: God created me in love before He created the world. The greatest love is His having chosen me even before the world existed.
- Second love: He created the Universe to share with me in love. This is love. God does everything out of love.
- Third love: He sent His son Jesus to die for me and be resurrected. This is the ultimate love.
- Fourth love: God gives grace through the Spirit. This grace comes out of love. Spiritual gifts, power, repentance, and sanctification all come from God’s love for me.
- Fifth love: God gave me Scripture to help me see his acts of love. The Bible is God’s love letter to me, given so that I may see His heart of love. This is His love for me.
- Sixth love: God sent missionaries. God sent these missionaries so that I may see His gospel of love. This is His love for me.
- Seventh love: God created me through my parents. My birth came from His love for me. He led me to believe in Christ and receive His love.
- Eighth love: God called me His child in Christ and invited me to glory. He called me for His eternal glory and showed His ultimate love to me. That He made me His child to give me all the blessings of Heaven is the greatest love.
- Ninth love: He leads me, His child, with the Holy Spirit. That He leads and disciplines me through the Holy Spirit is His love for me. The Spirit’s guidance of me brings with it the blessings of training and affliction for eternal glory. To realize truth, to understand more God’s love, to understand more the abundance of glory in His Kingdom, to be transformed further—all this is the Spirit’s guidance. To be used by Him, to have been transformed, to have an intimate relationship with Him amidst great grace—all this is His love for me.
- Tenth love: When He returns, I will meet Him in the midst of His glory and enjoy eternal glory in Heaven with Him. I will live with Him forever in His kingdom of glory—this is His love for me, and these are His steps of love.

* Please, please, please do not doubt His love. When we doubt God’s love, it hurts Him more than anything.
* Do not concern yourself with feelings, emotions, and circumstances. Only focus on His love for you, and enjoy it with gladness.
* Jesus says, “Your prayers, worship, praise, and service please me, but when you believe I love you, that pleases me most.” This is very important.

(1) Repentance

Holy Lord Jesus, I confess all the sins of my entire generational line all the way back to Adam and Eve. I completely cover these sins with the precious blood of the Lord Jesus Christ, and I accept full responsibility for all of my generational line’s sins. Holy Lord Jesus, please forgive all of my complete generational line’s sins.

(Wait for a response from the Lord, telling you that He forgives all of your generational line’s sins. Then completely, sincerely repent for these sins and wait for the Lord to accept your sincere repentance.)

Holy Lord Jesus, I confess every sin I have committed from the moment of my birth to this very moment. I accept full responsibility for all of these sins, and I ask You to please forgive these sins.

(Wait for the Lord to tell you He forgive all your sins. Then completely, sincerely repent for these sins and wait for the Lord to accept your sincere repentance.)

• Pour onto me the spirit of repentance, and let me realize my sins.

• Forgive me for my inability to be joyful, for my depression, for my sadness, and for my hopelessness.
• Forgive me for not being tender, for complaining, for my temper, for arguing, for worrying, and for harming others.
• Forgive me for gossiping, for cursing, for complaining, for lying, for mocking others, for using vulgar words, for using threatening words, for being irritable, and for hurting others with my words.

• Forgive me for my impure thoughts and behavior.
• Forgive my greed (for food, clothes, money, material things, etc.), my covetousness, my idolatry, and my selfishness.
• Cleanse me with Jesus’ holy blood. Cleanse my heart, my thoughts, my lips, my ears, my eyes, my emotions, my hands, and my feet. In the name of Jesus, the blood of Jesus, and the cross of Jesus, I command the destruction of my disobedience, arrogance, temper, anger, discontentment, envy, jealousy, covetousness, fighting spirit, worldly hope, lust, violence, dishonesty, and idolatry, as well as my binding, captivity, ensnarement, and enchainment by the spirit of deception.
• I proclaim I am God’s child and the pure bride of Jesus Christ.
• I proclaim that by Christ’s precious blood and the Holy Spirit’s power and authority, my spirit, soul, and body shall remain spotless and unblemished until the day of Christ’s return.

(38-39)
(2) Healing of Wounds and Pain

God of abundance, grace, and mercy, I forgive, in the name of Jesus, everyone who has harmed my ancestors and negatively affected my generational line. I completely surrender to You my anger, bitterness, hatred, vengeance, resentment, and unforgiving heart towards all who have harmed my ancestors and me. I confess that my ancestors and I have suffered from and been deeply wounded by others, natural disasters, and wars. Lord, please heal all the wounds and pain that I have inherited through my generational line.

At this moment, I surrender to You all the negative emotions including fear, horror, anxiety, shame, shock, and fright that my ancestors and I have experienced. Lord, remove these, and give me Your consolation. On the other hand, I shut all the doors that were opened to Satan through these wounds and pain. In the name of Jesus of Nazareth, I cast out all the spirits of darkness who have attacked my generation and me through the windows of these wounds and pain. In the name of Jesus, I command them to be bound and taken from me and my generational line to the place that Jesus has prepared for them. All this I pray in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

(3) Prayer to Block Oaths

In the name of Jesus Christ, I command the destruction of all sinful oaths sworn by my ancestors and me. I command the destruction of all oaths sworn consciously and unconsciously by my ancestors and me, as well as all false oaths we have sworn. I proclaim all such oaths powerless and invalid.

By the power of the holy blood of Jesus Christ, I destroy all the trappings of Satan that have bound my life through my ancestors. In the name of Jesus of Nazareth, I command you, Satan, to release all those who have been bound by oaths. In the name of Jesus I pray, Amen.

(39-40)
(4) Prayer to Block Curses

Loving God, I repent for all curses spoken by my ancestors and myself for any reason against me and my descendants. By all the authority of Jesus Christ, I command that all curses be cut off. I cancel all the power that Satan has obtained through these curses. I take from Satan all the effects of the curses that have been valid in my life, from the time I was in my mother’s womb to the present.

Lord, if there are any curses that hold power over my descendants and me, please restore me from their consequences. On the other hand, if my ancestors and I deserve punishment for having caused harm to others, please forgive us, and heal and restore those who have been damaged. God, touch their hearts, let them forgive us, and cancel all curses they have spoken against us. In addition, transform all the curses we have received from others, into Your blessings. All this I pray in the name of Jesus, Amen.

(40-41)
(5) Prayer to Block Demonic Union

In the name of Jesus, I block all demonic unions that God did not want or allow in my life and my relationships with others. I particularly block all ties born of the union of souls caused by sexual immorality. I block every kind of union of souls prohibited by God. I block all unions of demonic souls related to animals, material objects, ideology, and events.

I destroy and remove all power, benefits, and rights achieved by Satan through demonic unions of souls prohibited by God.

On the other hand, I set the Cross of Jesus Christ before all my personal relationships to let flow Your grace, goodness, and power through healthy relationships that You allow. I bless with love, healing, and peace all personal relationships allowed by You. In the name of Jesus I pray, Amen.

(41-42)
(6) Prayer to Discover Generational Spiritual Roots

For this very reason, Christ died and returned to life so that He might be the Lord of both the dead and the living (Romans 14:9). In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and in view of His appearing and His Kingdom, I give you this charge (2 Timothy 4:1). They will have to give account to Him who is ready to judge the living and the dead (1 Peter 4:5). For You formed my inward parts; You covered me in my mother’s womb. I will praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; Marvelous are Your works, and that my soul knows very well. My frame was not hidden from You, when I was made in secret, and skillfully wrought in the lowest parts of the earth. Your eyes saw my substance, being yet unformed. And in Your book they all were written, the days fashioned for me, when as yet there were none of them (Psalms 139:13-16). For He chose us in Him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in His sight in love (Ephesians 1:4).

I give all glory to You for all my talents and blessings received through my ancestors. Lord, I pray that all Your grace and blessings will continue and multiply in abundance for me and my ancestors. I dedicate all the grace and blessings I have received through my ancestors, to You to further Your Kingdom. On the other hand, expose all unworthy and unrighteous things that I have received through my ancestors that You did not plant (2 Corinthians 4:6). All things that are exposed are made manifest by the light, for whatever makes manifest is light (Ephesians 5:13). Bring to light all the sins committed by my ancestors. Lord, reveal to me the sins of my ancestors, especially those that cursed or damaged me and my descendants. In the name of Jesus I pray, Amen.

(42-44)
(7) God’s Sovereignty over My Generation

Thank you, Lord of the living and the dead, for giving me the authority and power to pray for my family.

And the Lord will make you the head and not the tail; you shall be above only, and not be beneath, if you heed the commandments of the Lord your God, which I command you today, and are careful to observe them (Deuteronomy 28:13). And I will give you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in Heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in Heaven (Matthew 16:19). And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, “All authority has been given to me in Heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.” Amen (Matthew 28:18-20). And He said to them, “Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who does not believe will be condemned. And these signs will follow those who believe: In My name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new tongues; they will take up serpents; and if they drink anything deadly, it will by no means hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover” (Mark 16:15-18). Then He called His twelve disciples together and gave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases. He sent them to preach the Kingdom of God and to heal the sick (Luke 9:1-2). Behold, I give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you (Luke 10:19). You did not choose Me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain, that whatever you ask the Father in My name He may give you (John 15:16).

Now, I stand as a representative of my family in front of God and dark powers, with the authority, power, and faith that God has given me. I proclaim in the name of Jesus that my family and I have been created as masterpieces in the image of God, and God is the master of my family. If my ancestors, descendants, and I have worshipped other gods besides the Lord Almighty; devoted ourselves to Satan; or made any kind of oath to Satan, I repent in the name of Jesus and cancel and destroy all such oaths and devotions. Through this, I proclaim all the rights and effects of such sins null and ineffective against me.

From now on, as a representative of my generation, I dedicate the spirits, souls, and hearts of my family, my generation, and myself to God. I proclaim that my descendants and I will serve the Lord.

And if it seems evil to you to serve the Lord, choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord (Joshua 24:15).

In the name of Jesus I pray, Amen.

(44-45)

(8) Power of the Blood of Jesus Christ

I hate and repent for all sins committed by my ancestors and me that have brought curses onto me, a child of God who has been redeemed by the blood of Jesus Christ. I repent for all my idolatry, including superstition, astrology, belief in other religions, magic, witchcraft, magic by evil spirits, fortune telling, palm reading, worshipping idols, adultery, lust, abuse of others, murder, deception, and lying. I ask God for forgiveness and cleansing.

I repent for all sexual relationships outside of marriage to the spouse whom God appointed for me. I repent for all the power, benefits, and rights I have sought and received from other gods. I set apart my children and myself from all sins and curses caused by my ancestors. Gracious Lord, pour out the blood of Jesus onto all sins committed by my mother’s and father’s generations.

By the power of the blood of Jesus Christ, I cut off and remove all consequences of sins and curses committed through my generational line. In the name of Jesus, I cut off all bondage inherited by my ancestors. Of all that I have inherited from my ancestors, I bless all those that were given by God and turn into blessings those that were not given by God. In the name of Jesus I pray, Amen.
(45-46)
(9) Confession and Destruction of Chain of Sins

Father God, I confess all my ancestors’ sins to You. I repent for my involvement in my ancestors’ sins, and I ask Your forgiveness. I especially confess those sins that have brought me curses. Lord, have mercy on me and all of my family members, and forgive all unrighteousness. By the power of the blood of Jesus Christ, please cleanse and deliver me from all my sins, faults, diseases, and curses. Liberate my descendants and me from the consequences of the sins committed by my ancestors. I cut off everything that is connected to Satan. If I possess any charms or keepsakes related to Satan, I destroy them. I take away from Satan all power to harm me and my family. I confess all sins inherited through the generations including __________________________ (name specific sins here). Forgive me, and pour the blood of Jesus upon these sins. I declare, by the authority, love, and power of the blood of Jesus Christ, the destruction of the sins I have inherited, and deliverance from the curses of these sins:

__________________________________________________________________________

Now, I declare that the sins of ______________________________________________ lose their rights to my generational line and are no longer effective. Thank You for freeing my descendants and me from the bondage of these past sins. In the name of Jesus I pray, Amen.

(46-47)
(10) Forgiveness for Those Who Have Damaged Me

Father God, I forgive my parents, relatives, and ancestors who have intentionally harmed me with wrongdoing, as you would like me to forgive. Among those who have harmed, damaged, or cursed me, I especially forgive ______________________________________________ (name specific individuals here) among my parents, relative, and ancestors for ________________________________ (name specific sins here). I give to You, God, all my anger, bitterness, hatred, revenge, vengeance, complaints, and unforgiveness towards them. Lord, let them be free through my forgiveness, and block all the powers of Satan that attack my generational line through them. In the name of Jesus I pray, Amen.

(47-48)
(11) Prayer to Fight and Cast Out Satan

In the name of Jesus of Nazareth, I oppose Satan, who comes through my generational line, and his minions and their activities. I destroy in the name of Jesus all oaths and vows taken by my family members, past and present, through superstition, idolatry, and other gods. In the name of Jesus, I proclaim all magic, curses, and chants cast by my ancestors to damage other families to be nullified and broken. On the other hand, I proclaim all magic, curses, and chants cast by other families to damage my own to be nullified, broken, and transformed into blessings.
I deport all demons that have entered my generational line through my mother’s and father’s families to the place that Jesus has prepared for them. I bind all demonic spirits with the Holy Spirit and cast them out to the place that Jesus has prepared for them. In the name of Jesus, I cast out the spirits of death, violence, rejection, arrogance, rebellion, anger, exclusion, fear, lust, perversion, magic, poverty, lack, debt, divorce, separation, gossip, depression, pessimism, loneliness, instability, bitterness, sadness, abuse, and addiction. In the name of Jesus, I command you, Satan, to depart from me with everything you have brought, including hereditary diseases, mental diseases, madness, cancer, diabetes, high blood pressure, and all other diseases. I block all evil spirits from harming my generational line, and I prohibit them from returning.

I shut all doors open to Satan for my harm, and dedicate my family and generation to the Lord. I place Jesus Christ’s cross and empty tomb on each of my generations. I transform all the curses received through my ancestors into blessings, and I hand down to my descendants only God’s blessings. In the name of Jesus I pray, Amen.

(48-49)
(12) Thanksgiving for Healing

Father God, thank You for liberating my family and me from all my ancestors’ sins and curses. I pray for Your Spirit to fill the places that were once conquered by Satan. Fill each of my family members’ and my thoughts, minds, feelings, and wills with Your Holy Spirit.

In the name of Jesus Christ, I bless my life and my family. I transform all that binds my family and me into blessings [mention each issue in detail here]. Let my family and me be planted with new character and grow.

I rededicate my family and myself as vessels of righteousness to be sanctified and used by You. I seal all the healing and liberation that God has effected thus far, in the name of Jesus. In the name of Jesus I pray, Amen.

(49-52)
(13) Total Cleansing

Holy Lord Jesus, please cleanse and completely purify my heart with Your precious blood and Your holy fire.

Holy Lord Jesus, please cleanse and completely purify my soul with Your precious blood and Your holy fire.

Holy Lord Jesus, please cleanse and completely purify my mind with Your precious blood and Your holy fire.

Holy Lord Jesus, please cleanse and completely purify my sub-conscious mind with Your precious blood and Your holy fire.

Holy Lord Jesus, please cleanse and completely purify my self with Your precious blood and Your holy fire.

Holy Lord Jesus, please cleanse and completely purify my emotions with Your precious blood and Your holy fire.
Holy Lord Jesus, please cleanse and completely purify my spiritual self with Your precious blood and Your holy fire.

Holy Lord Jesus, please cleanse and completely purify my flesh with Your precious blood and Your holy fire.

Holy Lord Jesus, please cleanse and completely purify my will with Your precious blood and Your holy fire.

Holy Lord Jesus, please cleanse and completely purify my record keeping books in Heaven with Your precious blood.

Holy Lord Jesus, please cleanse and completely purify my robe and gown in Heaven with Your precious blood. Amen.

(52-53)
(14) Prayer to Combat the Spirit of Python

*A prayer to block the spirit of Python, which disrupts and ruins prayer, the reading of Scripture, family relations, and finances.

In the great name of Jesus Christ, I command Python to release me from its grip and be bound and taken to the bottom of Hell, at this moment.

By the almighty power of Christ, I command all the angels in Heaven to come quickly and take this bound Python to Hell.

By the almighty power of Christ, I plead the holy blood of Christ to sprinkle and heal the space that Python occupied in me, and to transform the space into a fortress of Christ.

I give all praise and worship to You, Lord, and pray in the mighty name of Jesus Christ, Amen.

(53-55)
(15) Whole Armor of God

“Put on the whole armor of God” (Ephesians 6:11-18)

Now, I put on the whole armor of God:
• I wear the belt of truth, buckled around my waist, so that the truth (Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, and the Word of God) sets me free.
• I put on the breastplate of righteousness so that it protects my chest and stomach (and the important organs within, including my heart, lungs, liver, kidney, intestines, pelvis, and bowels) and keeps me healthy. Believing in Christ with my heart’s conviction makes me a spiritual person.
• I take up the shield of faith to block and extinguish all the flaming arrows of the Evil One.
• I wear the Gospel of peace on my feet, and wherever I go, I will preach the peace of God and the Gospel of peace.
• I now put the helmet of salvation on my head to protect all that is inside, including every brain cell and nerve, so that my heart will be filled with Jesus Christ of Nazareth, and my thoughts and knowledge will be filtered by the precious blood of Jesus.
• I arm myself with the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God. “Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us” (Romans 8:37). “You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world” (1 John 4:4). “I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me” (Philippians 4:13). “And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:19). “The things which are impossible with men are possible with God” (Luke 18:27). “For with God nothing will be impossible” (Luke 1:37).

• Now I arm myself with the seventh piece of armor, which is prayer, supplication, and thanksgiving [here we pray our personal prayers].

• I put on the armor of God and seal it with the blood of Jesus so that no evil spirits may enter me.

Holy Spirit, I believe You shine upon me and keep away dark spirits, making me victorious. For this I thank You and give You glory. I pray in the precious name of Jesus. Amen, Amen, Amen.

(55-60)

(16) Prayer to Block Generational Curses

Father in Heaven, I confess in the name of Jesus Christ that my ancestors worshipped Satan and idols for their own purposes, out of ignorance and curiosity. I now realize that these were sins, so I repent on behalf of my ancestors for all their sins that have effected my generation, including sorcery, magic, and witchcraft. I ask for Your forgiveness.

I destroy every blood vow made with Satan. We are no longer tied to Satan’s vows, and I partake of a blood vow with Jesus Christ, who died for us on the cross and was buried and raised to the throne of God, to sit at the right hand of the Father. We are cleansed, redeemed, justified, and sanctified by the precious blood of the Lamb of God.

We moved from the powers of darkness to the light of Jesus Christ. Satan and the powers of evil, we are no longer connected to you. In the name of Jesus, I command you to depart from me right now.

Lord, forgive me for any oaths with Satan taken by my generational line. In the name of Jesus, I break all oaths with Satan. In the name of Jesus Christ, I destroy and cut off all relationships to Satan established through my generational line.

I cut off all chants and incantations that have tried to conquer my generational line through the powers of evil. Lord, forgive all animal and human sacrifices, as well as sexual interactions with animals, humans, and evil spirits. I cut off all spectral relationships established through sexual interaction outside of marriage to my God-appointed spouse. In the name of Jesus, I command the immediate departure of the spirits of incantation, religion, magic, arrogance, knowledge, domination, and misinterpretation of the Bible, as well as all kinds of the spirit of deception, handed down through the generations.

In the name of Jesus, I proclaim all magic, curses, and chants cast by my ancestors to damage other families to be nullified and broken. Likewise, I proclaim all magic, curses, and chants cast by other families to damage my own to be nullified, broken, and transformed into blessings. Father, we forgive them in the name of Jesus for all they have done, so please forgive us.

I cast out all evil advisory spirits sought by my ancestors, and those that entered through my ancestors’ spiritual battles with others. In the name of Jesus, I proclaim that you have no part in my generational line. We belong to the light of Jesus Christ. You have no place in my generational line. In the name of Jesus, I command you to depart immediately. In the name of Jesus, I command you to release me from your evil power over my spirit and soul. In the name of Jesus, I proclaim that you cannot make me worship idols anymore.

My family and I have sealed our inner selves in the name of Jesus, and we are free from the powers of evil. In the name of Jesus, I destroy all the vows, oaths, idolatry, and superstition of my family’s past and present. Father God, forgive my family and me for accepting, welcoming, and serving anything that opposed the Gospel of Christ. Now cleanse me of all my sins. Satan, in the name of Jesus, I rebuke you and shut all doors that were opened to you when we were oppressed by your rule and authority, power and dominion, as a result of my ancestors’ serving you.

My generational line and I disconnect ourselves from your forces that reign over this world. I declare that my family will become royalty in the Kingdom of Light by Christ’s blood and the power of His resurrection. We are servants of the Lord Jesus Christ, and Jesus Christ is our Lord. We pray in the almighty name of Jesus Christ, Amen. Hallelujah.

I command all that is unclean and impure to depart from us and never return. Lord, cover with the blood of Christ the space that the evil spirits occupied, and fill it with Your Holy Spirit, love and grace. Anoint and bless us to be Your most blessed children. In the name of Jesus, Amen.

In the name of Jesus, I command the spirit of fear to listen. By dependence on the Word of God, I command you to release me [or insert other name here] from your grasp. With the Word of the Holy Jesus Christ that tells me, “Do not fear,” I hold you underfoot. I command in the name of Jesus that all your powers be loosed and cut off. Depart from the place you dwell, and never return. My loving Holy Spirit, fill the space that the spirit of fear occupied with Your fruits: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

Holy Spirit, fill me with a clean heart. Come with Your mighty power, God of Peace. My Lord Jehovah, protect me and renew my life in You. I pray in the name of my loving Jesus Christ, Amen.
My Prayers

(61-64)
(1) Familial Sins - Violations of The Ten Commandments

“You shall have no other gods before me.”
• My family and ancestors engaged in the worship of other gods, including mormonism, the church of Jehovah’s Witnesses, the church of Scientology, the Twelve Tribes, the Unification church, the Boston movement, the Family (Children of God), the Aryan Nation, the Nation of Islam (Black Muslims), the United Pentecostal Church (UPC), Hinduism, Islam, and Sikhism. We repent for these sins and ask for Your forgiveness.

“You shall not make for yourself an image in the form of anything in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below.”
• My family and ancestors created images and worshipped our own creations. We engaged in using crystals for fortunetelling, human sacrifices, conspiring against You, consulting wizards and psychics, bowing down to gods or serving images, brainwashing, breaking Your commandments, breaking vows and covenants made to You, breaking covenants and vows with others, palm reading, the chanting of charms, burning incense to gods, complacency against Your will or destiny, eating sin offerings, eating unclean food, idolatries of any kind, making or buying images, astrology, believing in evolutionary theory, New Age mysticism, believing in science and nature’s powers above Yours, and card reading. I ask You to forgive any witchcraft prayers, charismatic witchcraft prayers, or ungodly soulish prayers; destroy any side effects, effects, residual effects, influences, or stings of any witchcraft prayers, charismatic witchcraft prayers, or ungodly soulish prayers on me or anyone that I have prayed for today.

“You shall not misuse the name of the Lord your God, for the Lord will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses His name.”
• We have used your name in vain for our own benefit, and to make oaths that we did not keep. Forgive our sins.

“Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy.”
• We have failed to keep the Sabbath. We did not worship You on the Sabbath, we worked for our own benefit, and we enjoyed entertainment to please ourselves. We did not serve You. Forgive all our sins.

“Honor your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the Lord your God is giving you.”
• We have failed to honor, serve, respect, and care for our parents. We complained about them and expressed anger towards them. We disobeyed Your command. Forgive our sins.

“You shall not murder.”
• We have committed murder. We framed others for murder, killed, committed manslaughter, had abortions, cursed others to death, committed suicide, expressed and thought desires to die, hated others, and allowed self harm through Martyr’s Syndrome. Forgive our sins.

“You shall not commit adultery.”
• We have committed adultery. We have engaged in homosexuality, masturbation, sexual harassment, rape, pornography, adultery, incest, perversion, fornication, sexual immorality, and lust. Forgive our sins.

“You shall not steal.”
• We have coveted and stolen others’ belongings and failed to repay debts. Forgive our sins.

“You shall not give false testimony against your neighbor.”
• We have sinned by engaging in fraud, false accusations, jealousy and envy, and forcing others to give false testimony. Forgive our sins.

“You shall not covet your neighbor’s house. You shall not covet your neighbor’s wife, or his male or female servant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.”
• We have envied and coveted others’ belongings. We fell into jealousy, materialism, lust, and greed. Forgive our sins by Your grace.

(2) Idolatry
Almighty Father God, my family and ancestors should have believed in You, the only God, but we failed and served others. We engaged in the idolatry that You hate, worshipping superstition and other created gods. I now realize the sins we have committed. We deserve death, but I ask for Your mercy on us.

(3) Worshipping Other Gods and Religions
You are the only true God, Savior, and Creator. You are the omnipotent Lord who reigns sovereign over the world. You are the foundation of life. You are the one we should have always relied on, but we turned away from You and served other gods, followed other religions. We committed spiritual idolatry. We fell under the influence of mormonism, the church of Jehovah’s Witnesses, the church of Scientology, the Twelve Tribes, the Unification church, the Boston movement, the Family (Children of God), the Aryan Nation, the Nation of Islam (Black Muslims), the United Pentecostal Church (UPC), Hinduism, Islam, and Sikhism. Forgive all our sins.

(4) Idolatrous Activities
We have engaged in idolatrous activities. When we encountered problems or anxieties, we turned to superstition, fortunetellers, psychics, palm readers, card readers, shamans, and charms, instead of relying on You. We justified ourselves by claiming that it was harmless entertainment. Forgive our sins.
C. PRAYERS OF REPENTANCE FOR DAILY SINS

(81-108)
Prayers of Repentance for Daily Sins

(81-84)
(1) Hubris

Father God, You are the most precious and only God and Master of creation, who deserves all glory. I should know of Your existence and understand and live according to the truth that You are the source of all life, loving You, trusting You, and living for Your glory. But I have been arrogant. In my youth, I denied Your existence, didn’t believe in You, rebelled against You, and never sought You. I never listened to people who talked about You, and even said to them, “Where is God? If he exists, show him to me.” I was the most arrogant among the arrogant. My arrogance was sky-high.

God, I accepted Jesus Christ and the Christian life, and I dedicated my life to Him, but I have been living as the master of my own life, as if I were You. I have not depended on You. I have been living my life on my own strength and power. I claim to be a servant of Yours who works for You as a godly man, but I, and not You, have been at the center of my life. Even as I have been working for You, I have been secretly thinking of my own righteousness. I have been trying to fulfill my purpose and desire rather than Your Kingdom and Your righteousness. I have been trying to achieve worldly success rather than fulfill Your purpose and desire. I have been planning with my own strength rather than being guided by You. Instead of being guided by You, I have been trying to evangelize, pray, do Bible study, serve, and achieve church growth by worldly means and humanistic ways.

God, I disobeyed You. I delighted in and obeyed the things I found pleasing to myself, while I only partially obeyed the things I found difficult and unpleasing, and thus corrupted Your will. Partial obedience is corrupted obedience. I developed a habit of making excuses and following only the things that pleased me. My lips would say, “I love God, I trust God, I fear God,” but my actions showed the opposite. I did not love You, I did not trust You, and I scorned You. I habitually sinned by disobeying You, rebelling against You, and scorning You. My self did not die in front of You and others. I was my old disobedient, arrogant self. Father God, forgive my sins.

The Scripture says, “Pride goes before destruction” (Proverbs 16:18). I was prideful. I was prideful even though I knew that the great King Saul of Israel was abandoned by You as a result of his pride. The most arrogant thing was that I did not even realize my arrogance.

I did not kneel humbly to You, and I did not depend on You. My arrogance was sky-high. I did not try to draw near to the Word of God. I denied You, did not believe in You, rebelled against You, and did not even pray to You. When I worked for You, I tried to show off my self-righteousness. I snatched away Your glory to elevate myself to Your place. I pursued my own glory. So often, I tested You to fulfill my purposes, and when unsuccessful, I blamed and cursed
You. When I deserved the consequences of my sins, I did not even repent; I blamed others. I lived by my own strength, so I was arrogant, cocky, vain, and prideful. I showed off my physical appearance, power, experience, and knowledge, so I was conceited and self-praising. I looked down my nose at others, stood high, and walked with a vain swagger.

I used Scripture to satisfy my own desires and control others by belittling, ignoring, and judging them. My spiritual arrogance blinded me from truth. I hated being taught by God and others, so I tried to turn away from admonishment. I avoided listening to others and improving myself, but I pointed out others’ flaws and tried to teach them. I did not cooperate with others, out of stubbornness and willfulness. I thought I had to do everything by myself. I evaluated others’ sermons and criticized and pointed out the flaws of other churches and communities, all while believing I had no flaws of my own.

God, help me to completely trust and obey You, and to be humble. Forgive all my sins. In the name of Jesus Christ, Amen.

(84-85)
(2) Sexual Immorality

Father God, my sexual immorality impeded Your glory. I was trapped by the world’s dirty precepts and lust. I enjoyed infidelity drama and dirty conversation. I was curious about others’ personal lives and scandals, and I enjoyed lustful media while dismissing it as harmless entertainment. I enjoyed researching sex-related news to feed my curiosity. I was ensnared by my curiosity and carelessness towards the opposite sex. I insincerely flattered individuals of the opposite sex and presented myself in a way to seduce others. I was more polite, generous, and caring to members of the opposite sex than to my own. I associated with adulterers and was influenced by their lusting minds. I was drawn to lust by physical appearances. I lusted after others’ private parts and fantasized about them. I intentionally touched others for sexual pleasure. I succumbed to the temptations of alcohol and sexual pleasure. I enjoyed pornography. I enjoyed sexual immorality, including homosexuality, masturbation, rape, incest, fornication, perversion, sex before marriage, voyeurism, and extra-marital lovers.

Thought I knew that a godly person must love and fear the Lord more than anything, I valued material objects, my spouse, celebrities, lovers, my children, fame, and power more than you. I lived in spiritual idolatry by loving this world. Though my heart and body should have been focused on You, I lived in TV, movies, dramas, sports, games, fishing, and technology. I lusted when I was young. I have lusted more than Zomer. Forgive all my sins.

(85-86)
(3) Dishonesty

Father God, Satan is the father of lies. I engaged in dishonest behavior like a child of Satan. I was a two-faced hypocrite. I didn’t know You and Your Scripture, but I pretended that I did, and I wrongly taught and guided others. I am a liar, swindler, and false prophet. I covered myself with a false facade and made false oaths to You and others. My mouth was made unclean through my corruption of Your word. My lips were made to pray, but I used them to twist others’ words and lie, using Your name.

I harmed my neighbors with false testimony and ignored their truths. I slandered, exaggerated praise, pretended to know things I didn’t know, and invented false stories. I listened with interest to lies and was deceived by them. I entrapped others by twisting their words or putting words in their mouths. I corrupted the authority of my words by lying and attributing lies to others. My valuable words were cheapened.

I gave false compliments to others to curry praise for myself. I intentionally gave false reports to others and led them to lie themselves, then came up with excuses and justifications for these sins and let myself become accustomed to them. I lied a lot and enjoyed gambling, which encouraged lies. When my lies were exposed, I did not accept it, and I attempted to cover them with yet more lies and excuses.

I was deceived by evolutionary theories and cults. I fell under the sway of wrong theology because I lacked knowledge of You. Forgive all my sins.

(87-88)

(4) Temper and Anger

Father God, I have impeded Your glory with my temper. When things didn’t go my way, I became angry and resentful. I complained and rebelled against You. As a result, I fell from grace and failed to fulfill Your righteousness.

I exploded with anger and couldn’t control my rage with my own strength. When I tried to be patient, I was only suppressing my anger, which continued to rage underneath.

I couldn’t die to You and others. I confess I was not refined by Your Word. I regarded those who harmed me as my enemies, and I directed my anger and resentfulness towards them.

If others had different opinions from me, I always challenged and provoked them, picking fights and exacerbating problems. Even as I laughed on the outside, I raged on the inside. I made a big deal out of minor issues and instilled fear in others with my anger. I was easily provoked, and my temper led me to violence against others. I even ended up harming and demeaning myself. Forgive all my sins.

(5) Depression
Father God, I declared myself Your child, but I did not live with gratitude and enthusiasm. I was often depressed and powerless, unable to express my joy in You. I had no interest in anything, and I felt guilty and weak. I felt anxiety and insecurity, and I lived nihilistically. I lost my self-esteem and avoided others. My anxiety caused me to feel sad and lonely, and my fear kept me from adjusting to the world. I believed myself worthless compared to others, which fed suicidal thoughts and caused me to sleep excessively. I suffered headaches, anxiety, insomnia, useless thoughts, worry, indigestion, and stress.

I was easily annoyed, my thinking and behaving lagged, and my concentration, memory, and appetite failed. My passion and energy flagged, so my discipline and will suffered. I put off my responsibilities and carried out my duties half-heartedly. I couldn’t keep up with the pace of life, including exams, gaining employment, romantic break-ups, marriage, family deaths, getting fired, and retiring, so I became disappointed, joyless, and always depressed. Thus, I did not believe in You or completely depend on You. I committed spiritual idolatry by relying on the superstitions of my ancestors. I did not lay my stress and burdens on You, but tried to handle them on my own and thus lost strength.

Now, I believe You are the only solution to all my problems. Forgive all my sins.

(89-90)
(6) Worry and Anxiety

Father God, I declared I am Your child, but I doubted and did not believe in Your power. I was always anxious and worried about my circumstances. I did not lay my burdens on You, but tried to carry them on my own. I did not believe with conviction in Your promise to carry our burdens for us, so I had no confidence in You. I foolishly relied on my my own wisdom and power, though I had none. I depended on others and constantly worried about what I would eat or wear. I worried unnecessarily, and my anxiety dried my bones and harmed my body. I was always busy, tired, and unrested because I was lazy, careless, and anxious for no reason. My heart was numbed by the anxiety, fear, and worry that snatched God’s Word from me everyday.

Your work, which I should have undertaken with joy and diligence, became a burden to me. You told me to give all my burdens to You, and but I tried to handle them with my own strength. I worried needlessly, knowing that my worry would be unproductive. Forgive all my sins.

(90-91)
(7) Complaint and Discontentment

Father God, I am Your child, but my words have been ungodly. I did not acknowledge Your sovereignty, and whenever things didn’t go my way, I complained, resented You, and was discontent. I misunderstood and misinterpreted Your Word, and when it did not align with my own ideas, I did not accept it and fell, complaining and even blaspheming. I was not satisfied with my circumstances, and I blamed the world and became pessimistic. When things went well,
I was happy; when things were not going well, I grumbled. When things went well, I gave thanks; when things were not going well, I complained. I was impatient and could not persevere nor endure, so complaining and resenting became my habits. When my personal or professional relationships upset or disappointed me, I always complained. I pestered my siblings and resented my parents for being inadequate. I pointed out others’ flaws instead of accepting them. I did not give thanks for all You gave me, but complained about all I did not have. When my plans were unsuccessful, I often grumbled and was annoyed. Forgive all my sins.

(91-92)
(8) Begrudging and Jealousy

Father God, begrudging and jealousy are evil things that harm the body. But I engaged in them. There were times when I couldn’t accept good things happening to others. When others diligently tithed, served, or were acknowledged, I begrudged them for it.

I forgot You watch over me all the time, and I concerned myself with others. Sometimes, I was trapped by my low self-esteem without my realizing it, and I regarded peers as rivals in the work of Your Kingdom. I gossiped with colleagues out of covetousness and pride, and I secretly delighted in others’ mistakes and failures. I did Your Work with my own fleshly desires, and I drew confidence from others’ praise. I did not cooperate with others in work that would glorify You, and I hampered the success of others. I could not control my envy and jealousy, though I knew that they were harmful. I was narrow-minded and did not accept others’ behavior because I begrudged them. I rejected, impeded, gossiped about, defamed, and maligned those You had anointed, out of jealousy, covetousness, and self-righteousness. King Saul was destroyed by his jealousy of David. I was like King Saul.

A godly person should celebrate and delight in Your Kingdom and Your servants’ good fruits, but I honestly did not. Forgive all my sins.

(93-94)
(9) Licentious Activity/Entertainment

Father God, though I live in the world, my life’s purpose lies in the Kingdom of God. But I have lived as if the pleasures of the world were my life’s purpose. Regardless of time and place, I followed the pleasures of good food and enjoyment. I enjoyed hobbies like sports, fishing, chess, comics, gambling, and Internet activity more than You. I put You behind addictive games, music, television dramas, movies, and smart phones, so I was negligent of my spiritual growth. I was addicted to entertainment, and I neglected the Sabbath and my role as Your child. I enjoyed lust, covetousness, anger, pride, laziness, stinginess, jealousy, thievery, and sensual pleasures. I could not discern good from bad, and self-control was impossible. I lost myself to physical hedonism, alcohol, gambling, and sex for my own pleasure. I completely ignored others in my community and was addicted to the pleasures of entertainment like an animal.
I enjoyed partying, drinking, dancing, entertainment, motels, massage parlors, brothels, night clubs, karaoke bars, chat rooms, and all kinds of sexual service establishments. I contributed to the rate of teenage runaways by supporting entertainment businesses. I admired those who lived together before marriage, arranged marriages, and sexual promiscuity. I lived in the kinds of lascivious activity and entertainment that destroyed Israel and Rome. I enjoyed worldly knowledge outside of You. I lived in pursuit of worldly things, instead of putting my hope in Heaven. I did not know that happiness can only be found in the restoration of my relationship with You, and not in physical pleasure. I confess You are my joy. Forgive all my sins.

(10) Impatience

Father God, I impeded Your glory with my impatience and inability to persevere. I went ahead of Your plans, and I did not wait patiently for Your promises to be fulfilled. When my plans were unsuccessful or delayed, I misunderstood and blamed You.

Regardless of Your blessings, I was unable to control my fleshly desires, and when things did not happen quickly, I became insecure and anxious. I always hurried and overestimated by abilities; I couldn’t calm myself to give You my burdens. You are the only one who makes decisions and gives grace, but I put myself in Your position and judged and condemned. I made a show of praying formally but awaited only quick results. I fell into the trap of following others’ opinions and lost my discernment. I bombastically made false oaths and ensnared myself. I ruined so much with my impatience. I interrupted others to show off, without even having the appropriate knowledge. I tried to plant and harvest on my own, without offering the work to You. I hated waiting, so I was too impatient to plant, and I plucked out what had been planted before. I missed out on Your blessings with my inability to wait on Your time, instead working on my own time.

When my family and others did not repent, I lacked the patience to wait for them. I was angry and critical of people before they could apologize to me for something. I was quick to criticize and punish others before understanding their situations.

(11) Laziness

Father God, I should diligently serve You, but I have been too lazy to be loyal to You. My laziness impeded Your glory and ruined Your plans to work through me. I was too lazy to help my peers grow in You through Bible study, sermon preparation, prayer, and caring for their congregations.

I couldn’t even help my parents due to my laziness, and instead of working hard, I relied on luck to bring me success. I wasted my precious time and enjoyed a comfortable life of eating, playing, and oversleeping. I exhausted my family by refusing to awake, even as they tried to wake me up in the morning. Though I had a lot to do, I pushed back my duties and pulled tricks to avoid them. As for the work I didn’t want to do, I dealt with them perfunctorily while grumbling.

I didn’t sincerely keep my promises to You and others. Though I had so much to pray for, my laziness kept me from seeking You, knocking at Your door, and finding You. I was lazy to come to You and serve You, but I was so diligent in seeking worldly pleasures. My lazy and slothful attitude damaged others, so I did not receive approval from You nor others. I was isolated from my community and brought a vicious financial cycle onto myself. Forgive all my sins.

(12) Doubt

Father God, I impeded Your glory with my doubt and unbelief. I believed that You are the Creator, but I did not believe in Your sovereignty and guidance. I did not understand the God of love, and even less so the God of judgment. I believed I was a child of Yours, but I did not believe in the authority of Your child. You said that living according to Your Word would bring great blessings, but I didn’t completely believe in Your blessings, and I did not live according to Your Word. When I was comfortable I sought You, but when I was not comfortable I sought doctors, others, and money.

Thought I trusted You, my false faith was evidenced by my anxiety, and my little faith by my inability to testify for You. My faith in Your love and promise was shaky. I did not trust in nor follow the guidance of Your servants.

Even though signs of Your power and authority are manifest today, and many testify that You are a living God, I did not believe it. Though Your Word tells us that You will multiply our good works if we humbly serve You, I did not believe it, so I did not humbly serve You. Forgive all my sins.

(13) Fear

Father God, You have always loved and protected me, but I could not enjoy peace and true freedom with You. I did not trust You completely with my life and possessions, out of my fear of the world and people. I sinned by not trusting in Your promise, and I allowed fear to enter my heart. Forgive me. I feared people, circumstances, and my duties to You, so I could not progress in my path towards You. I did not preach Your will nor evangelize. You told me to be strong and bold, but I was timid and passive. I did not follow You for fear of death, nor did I boldly spread my faith for fear of others’ opinions. I always feared the way others would view me, and thus couldn’t advance in my faith. When I saw others who were stronger, wealthier, or more educated than me, I became insecure and afraid. Though you said that obeying Your word would bring me Your love, I somehow made a fearsome God of You and feared to approach You. Israel’s enemies are not only Canaanites, but Israelis who fear war. I was one of these cowards. Forgive all my sins.

(99-100)
(14) Stinginess

Father God, I impeded Your glory with my stinginess. I was always generous to myself, but stingy towards You and others.

I ignored the poor, and when I did help them, I did so minimally and reluctantly, praising myself all the while. While I gave reluctantly, I received happily. I did not give to You out of my stinginess, so I could not receive Your financial blessings and thus lived poorly. Everything in the world is Yours, but I thought my possessions were mine. Though tithes should be given with a joyful and grateful heart to signify that all is Yours, I tithed believing that I was offering You what was mine. I was sparing in giving, not only financially but in praise, gratitude, and hospitality. I made a habit of generously criticizing, judging, and condemning others. And so I lived ungenerously and poorly. Give me Your grace, and let me give abundantly to You and my neighbors. Forgive all my sins.

*I repent for my poverty brought upon by:
• my ancestors’ and my offerings to and worship of other gods
• unrighteously earning money (by fraud, gambling, swindling, robbing, strong-arming, etc.)
• not helping the poor or needy
• laziness
• not repaying loans
• stealing what is Yours (tithes, offerings, etc.)

(101-102)
(15) Covetousness

Father God, my old self of greed and covetousness has impeded Your glory. While claiming to do Your work, I always had my own benefits in mind, and gratified my self-interests.

I always envied the wealthy and relished receiving praise and compliments. I caused trouble by constantly seeking what was bigger and greater than my abilities. As a result, I was spiritually and financially damaged. My competitiveness got the better of me, and I ruptured relationships with those who were my brothers and sisters in You, whom I should have loved. I was overly possessive and spent unwisely. I always overdid things, reaching for bigger and greater though they exceeded my abilities, and I became tired and burned out. I always felt like something was lacking, so I never felt satisfied and took from others, rather than giving.
Other people’s things always seemed better than mine, and I was so full of greed and covetousness that I cared only about enriching myself. Whatever I liked, I had to own. I hoarded more than what I needed.

I obsessed over possessing material objects, always believing that I needed more than others. I coveted luxury goods and brand names. I pined after worldly success and delighted in worldly things. Lord, from now on I place my hope in Heaven, and I will delight in all that is Yours. Forgive all my sins.

(102-103)
(16) Divulgence

Father God, I divulged the personal secrets of those I counseled in confidentiality. Though I knew I shouldn’t have divulged what others confided in me, when our relations soured, I sneakily let slip personal information about them to others. I enjoyed exposing others’ sins and flaws. I took pride in being privy to individual or church secrets. My heart was not sincere.

I pointed out others’ flaws to justify or hide my own. My divulgence of secrets snowballed and caused many problems, eventually returning to me. I intentionally divulged secrets to show off and enhance my own reputation, and when things went awry, I floundered and regretted that I could not undo the damage.

We church leaders and Christians are supposed to edify and help each other with our flaws, but I spread rumors and hurt my community. I insisted that my attitude was right and justified because it exposed truths. Thus, I used secrets that should have been guarded, as weapons.

From now on, I don’t want to divulge secrets. I want to praise others and preach the Gospel. Forgive all my sins.

(103-104)
(17) Gossip

Father God, I have sinned often with my words. I spent a lot of time gossiping, yelling, cursing at others, and chattering.

I sinned by slandering, dividing relationships, tattling, criticizing, gossiping, and chattering unnecessarily. I led others to stumble with my deceptive words, flattered, seduced, tempted, and exaggerated. My lips produced both bitter water and sweet water. Under the guise of jokes, I slandered, criticized, backbit, judged, and gossiped. I interrupted others’ conversations and showed off to receive praise and admiration. I did not control my mouth, so I caused problems and cursed repeatedly.
You told us that where there are no blabbers, there are no quarrels. But I was a blabber, so the quarrels never stopped. I talked too much, but there were no fruits produced by my words, so I was ashamed. Now, help my lips to always praise You, and console and encourage others. Let my lips be an instrument for You, that speak Your words of truth, life, and love to save others’ spirits. Forgive all my sins.

(104-106)
(18) Hatred and Mercilessness

Father God, You told us to love others as You love us, but there were many occasions when I lived with hatred. I should love my neighbors, parents, and siblings with all my heart, for You loved me so much that You send Your Son to die on the cross for me, but I lived with resentment towards my family and neighbors, and even You.

My heart was filled with so much hatred and filth that when I saw others more successful and loved than I, I hated them for it. I hated those who spoke straightforwardly to me or disliked me. I hated those who held different opinions and ideas from me. I unfairly hated others, sometimes for no good reason. I created cliques to feed my unfounded hatred of others, and used public correspondence to slander. I hated and mercilessly harassed others, even my in-laws.

When I got myself into trouble or struggled, I always blamed others, including family, colleagues, friends, neighbors, the country, and government leaders. I viewed news events and issues not through Your perspective, but rather blamed others. Though I daily prayed for You to forgive me as I forgave others, I held onto my pain and resentment and refused to forgive others because I focused only on my suffering and losses. You taught us to love our enemies, but I continued to hate my enemies with resentment. You said that hatred is murder, and that hating others would boomerang back to us, yet still I hated.

Though I knew that holding onto anger and hatred would damage me spiritually and physically, I was narrow-minded and hated reconciliation. I refused to ask others for forgiveness; I expected them to ask me for forgiveness first.

From now on, I will remove the hatred and resentment from my heart, and fill it with Your love so that I may live with love and mercy for others. Forgive all my sins.

(106-107)
(19) Addiction to Alcohol, Nicotine, and Gambling

Father God, my ancestors and I were addicted to alcohol, nicotine, drugs, and pleasure. My enjoyment of hard liquor and drinking competitions led me to become an alcoholic. Under the influence of alcohol, I picked fights, became violent, and made life difficult for those around me. When things weren’t going well, I tried to resolve them with alcohol and nicotine instead of turning to You. My ancestors ran alcohol establishments and helped ruin others’ lives and lead them down paths to Hell. When I was young, I fell to the temptations of nicotine and became an addicted smoker. In the process, I also damaged others’ health with my smoking. By selling cigarettes, my ancestors encouraged others’ addictions and harmed their health. My health suffered, as well, due to my carelessly visiting places that welcomed smokers. I am addicted to nicotine. I did not take care of my body, Your temple. I thought my body belonged to me, so I abused it.

Father God, I am addicted to entertainment, games, and gambling. I lived attached to my smart phone. Instead of focusing on my work, studies, rest, and Your tasks for me, I fell into an addiction to gambling. I avoided socializing with family and others, and sought entertainment in gambling. When I didn't have my phone in hand, I felt insecure and panicked. My brain was damaged like a drug abuser’s by my addiction to gambling; I lost my self-control and discipline. My addiction caused so much suffering, but I had no control over it. My soul and body were deprived by gambling. Forgive me. In the name of Jesus I pray, Amen.

“If my people who are called by My name humble themselves and pray, and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land.” (2 Chronicles 7:14)

(a) Prayer for those left behind during the Rapture
• Let them awake now to prepare for Christ’s coming. Let them realize the reality of Heaven and Hell.

• Though they have been left behind, let them repent for having been spiritually asleep, neglected prayer, not loved Christ, not hungered for Christ’s return, loved the world and so not having prepared the oil for Your return, and disobeyed Your Word.

• Let them understand Your love that saves anyone who repents during the Tribulations.

• Let them never deny or betray their faith, nor lose hope in You.

• Let them repent immediately so that they may be taken by natural disasters before enduring torture.

• Remind them of Your Scripture so that they may never take the mark of the beast, nor worship idols.

• Let them obey the words of the ministers who are left behind so that they may be saved.

• Have mercy on the children; let them not deny Christ, and let them be taken by natural disasters.

• Let the warnings of the mark of the beast be preached to everyone. Let all who hear of the mark awake and not fall to the deceptive spirits who claim it is merely a symbol.

(116-118)

(b) Prayer for the ministers left behind during the Tribulations

• Receive all glory and honor through these ministers.

• Through these ministers, let Your Kingdom come and Your will be done.

• Pour Your oil abundantly onto them during this precious time You have given them. Let them draw nearer to and dwell in You so that they may enjoy intimate relationships with You.

• Pour Your fearless love onto them more and more so that they may be strong soldiers for You, armed with Your love.

• As the Apostle Paul says, “Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?” (Romans 8:35). “Christ will be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death” (Philippians 1:20). Let these ministers hold onto these words spoken by the Apostle Paul.

• Let them surrender to You, Your great love, and the glory of Heaven. Let them endure and persevere in Your hope, finding joy amidst the hunger, threats, fear, and fatigue of the Tribulations.

• Fill them abundantly with all the grace, wisdom, power, authority, and gifts they need to fulfill Your tasks.

• Let them know with certainty that Heaven and Hell exist.
• Let them be sober and awake and love others, knowing that the End Times are near.
• Awake all who are spiritually asleep by pouring onto them Your Holy Spirit. Let them prepare for Your return with prayer, and so please You.

(e) Prayer for unbelievers
• Lord, You want everyone to be saved by knowing the truth. Let everyone on this earth believe in You and be saved.

• Let them realize that they are sinners before You. Give them the grace to repent.

• Let them know Jesus died for their sins. Let them accept You as their Lord and Savior.
• The Gospel is good news, of great joy. Let the Gospel be spread over all the earth, and wherever it is preached, let the power of Your Spirit be revealed so that all who are imprisoned and oppressed by demons may be freed, and great joy and peace will reign.
• Let them know that the sun, rain, air, and life all come from You. Let them depend on You and give thanks and glory to You.
• Whenever the Gospel is preached, let Your Holy Spirit work to bind all evil spirits and bring unbelievers to belief.
• You love everyone, for You created everyone. We are what You hunger for, are desperate for, and miss most. Let the unbelievers return to You.
• Everyone must know that the greatest love comes from You. Let there be no more wandering or vain pursuits. Let all return to You and find the greatest joy, hope, and peace in Your salvation.

• Forgive Israel for persecuting those who believe in Jesus.
• Pour Your spirit of repentance onto Israel so they may realize their sins, sincerely repent, and return to You.

(1) Salvation for Israel

(1) Lord, remember Israel. Let Israel remember You, their first love, and let them know and accept that the Messiah and Lord they are awaiting is Jesus. Let them know Your heart and understand Your Word so You may encounter them, be with them, and work with them. Lord, have mercy on them. Help them. Encounter them through visions and dreams.
(2) Let all Israelis know that Jesus is the only way, truth, and life.
(3) Open their eyes to Isaiah 53 and let them realize the love of the Cross and God’s sacrifice for them, and accept Jesus as their Lord and Savior.
(4) The Devil knows that if the Gospel is preached to Israel, then Jesus is coming soon. Satan will attempt to close all doors to the Gospel, and spiritual warfare will rage. Idolatry, secularization, homosexuality, religious pluralism, and all kinds of sin will run rampant. God, open the gates of Heaven then and send Your army of angels. Let the winds of Your Holy Spirit blow strongly and destroy the schemes of the Devil to block the Gospel. Let the remaining Israelis return to, worship, praise, and exalt You.
(5) Fulfill your promised plans for Israel. Save the stumps, the holy descendants of Israel, who remain (Isaiah 6:13). Give them a new heart and put a new spirit within them; take their hearts of stone out of their flesh and give them hearts of flesh (Ezekiel 36:26).
(6) Let a marvelous work take place: during the Tribulations, let Israel return to You.
(7) Let a movement of repentance arise even amidst the military, and let it bring about an incredible growth in the number of Jews who return to Yeshua, King of the Jews. Let Your breath come from the four winds and fill Jerusalem, all of Judea, and Samaria.
(8) Let Your Gospel be fulfilled in Israel through Messianic Jews, all preachers of the Gospel from every corner of the world, and pilgrims to the Holy Land. Destroy the evil powers that attempt to block the Gospel.
(9) Send out more preachers of the Gospel and harvesters to Jerusalem, all of Judea, and Samaria.
(10) Heal the wounds caused by not knowing You. Deliver and liberate Israel from evil ideas, idolatry, and religious legalism. Let them taste true freedom, love, joy, and happiness in Jesus, the Truth.

(169-170)
(2) Messianic Jews

(1) Let Messianic Jews know Your love, love You, awake and pray, know Heaven, put their hopes in Heaven, await Your return, not love the world, be anointed by Your Holy Spirit, be intimate with You, and find joy and happiness in You, even amidst the Tribulations.
(2) Cover them with Jesus’ holy blood, and pour Your anointing oil onto the church of Messianic Jews so they may keep their faith, boldly preach the Gospel, and await and prepare for Your return.
(3) Let the entire church overflow with the Holy Spirit’s anointing oil so a revival may spring out of Your healing and restoration. Let every Jew who seeks signs and wonders join the church.
Pour out the latter rain on Jerusalem, all of Judea, and Samaria, as prophesied in the book of Joel (Joel 2:23). Plant churches in every city and region, and let the sound of praises sung to You echo throughout the world.

(4) Deliver the Gospel to all the world through the Internet and television. Bring healing and restoration wherever the Word of Truth is spoken.

(5) Send out many missionaries from among Messianic Jews to preach the Gospel so more people may join the church than in the days of the early church.

(6) Let the world’s Messianic Jews prepare themselves to be the bride of Christ so they may be exalted on the Day of Glory. Reveal Christ to all of Israel.

(7) Let them understand Matthew 27:25: “His blood be on us and on our children.” Let all of Israel repent sincerely and completely so the door of salvation, once closed, may be opened to all so they may soberly pray.

(3) Religious Leaders

(1) 20% of Israelis are Jews. These Jews have eyes but cannot see, have ears but cannot hear; their hearts are confused. Open their eyes, ears, and hearts. Let them know that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, the promised Messiah of the Old Testament.

(2) Let them accept Jesus Christ and be used as instruments to lead the Jews to You. When they read Scripture, let them miraculously encounter You.

(171)

(4) Missionaries and Their Support Teams in Israel

(1) Send out missionaries who love You and Israel. Send out interceders and ministers who can cry out to You with Your heart from among all nations.

(2) Set watchmen on the walls of Jerusalem who will not keep silent, day or night (Isaiah 62:6). Let Zion’s righteousness shine like a light. Let the watchmen encourage Zion until the day of salvation.

(3) Let the ministers be unified in the Holy Spirit and encourage, respect, help, and cooperate with each other.

(4) Pour Your precious blood, anointing oil, intimacy, and guidance by the Holy Spirit to missionaries so they can boldly preach the Gospel, anointed as mighty interceders. Bless even the visa process so it may run smoothly.

(5) Missionaries in Israel are suffering from inflation and a steeply rising cost of living. Help restore stability to the economy, and do not let missionaries lack anything physically, spiritually, and materially.

(5) Aliyah (the return of emigrated Israelis to their homeland)
(1) Let all Israelis who have emigrated return to their homeland. Pour Your Holy Spirit onto the ministers who work towards Aliyah; be with them. Provide more safe settlements and a stable housing market for returning Israelis so more may return to their homeland.
(2) Pour out Your wisdom to those involved in the Gaza Strip disputes.
(3) Let the world media, the United Nations, and the West stand upon Your Word so the Israelis can live in their promised land.

(172-173)
(6) Jerusalem’s Peace and National Leaders

(1) I ask for Your peace upon Jerusalem. Let all of Israel and all nations know that you keep and protect Israel with no sleep nor slumber, and that she is the apple of Your eye. Let all nations pray for Jerusalem’s peace and prosperity. Peace be with Jerusalem.
(2) Bless Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu and all Israeli leaders. Let them fear and completely trust in You. Let their hearts be courageous so they may keep Your Word and not stray from Your path.
(3) Let Israel become a free society in which the Gospel can be preached. Strengthen their national defense department, and protect the nation from the terrorism and wars of surrounding countries.
(4) Amidst the attempts to negotiate peace with Palestine, let the Israeli leaders have confidence in Your Word and promise. Give them wisdom and solid faith. Quell anti-Semitism, and let Your will alone be exalted in peace agreements, above the will of men.

(173-174)
(7) Israel and Palestine

(1) Let Jerusalem be peaceful and secure.
(2) This war belongs to You, God, so be with Israel and let Your will be done.
(3) Let all stand on Your side by knowing Your will for Israel.
(4) Let everyone in both nations find Jesus through this disaster and suffering. Encounter them, and have mercy on them.
(5) Protect the male and female soldiers who fight against terrorism, and keep all civilians in the disputed area safe.
(6) Destroy Hamas, the Palestinian Islamic terrorist group. Let all who oppose Israel fail in their attempts.
(7) Protect the residents of the Gaza Strip, who are trapped by the spirits of vengeance and destruction. Protect the civilians, and open their eyes and hearts to Jesus Christ, their perfect Savior.

(175-176)
Prayers for Korea
• Jesus Christ the Son of God, receive all glory, sovereignty, and exaltation through our lives and the Korean church.
• Holy Spirit, abide in Korea. Let the church repent and turn away from sin. Renew the nation so it may return to the Living God in faith. Bring a great spiritual awakening to the nation.
• Let all nations pray that Korea may be consumed by a fire of prayer, repentance, and great awakening.
• We declare that the Lord is Master of Korea. Rule and be sovereign over our nation so we may fulfill Your will.
• Heal our nation. Let the Korean church return to the Gospel, awake, and be restored to their first love with You.
• Let us forcefully realize that repentance is the only way forward for our country. Send an extensive prayer movement in our nation before Your holy presence. Let the movement of repentance reach every corner of our country.
• Save our nation. Let our nation turn away from all sin and evil, and stand humbly before You, never forgetting Your mercy and grace.
• Let every national leader of Korea return to Your Word.

It’s time to pray for Korea.

When we vigilant brides sincerely repent and pray for our nation and church, our Lord hears and receives our prayers in Heaven. There are numerous prayer topics for Korea; I have collected the most important ones here. Whether you gather with others or pray alone, use this collection of prayers. If we pray like Daniel for our nation’s, society’s, and church’s corruptions as if they are our own, our Father in Heaven will hear our prayers and restore us.

(177-178)
(1) Country and Nation

• Father God of great mercy and grace, we have been living in an ungodly way for the last couple millennia, participating in adultery, superstition, and shamanism. Now, we repent for our sins. Have mercy on our country and nation.
• So many of our patriots who loved this nation and country never valued their own lives because they believed You protected them. They gave their lives for Korea, enduring oppression and exploitation under Japanese rule. Father God, You heard their prayers and saved our nation, but we were ungrateful. Now, we repent for our sins. Have mercy on our country and nation.
• Thank You for having a hand in the establishment of our nation by hearing the prayers of a righteous few. We never thanked You for sending so many missionaries to work to the point of death, planting the seeds of the Gospel in Korea. Now, we repent for our sins. Have mercy on our country and nation.
• We guarded with our lives our faith, our democracy, and the Gospel, but we gave them up so easily to allies of North Korea out of ignorance and carelessness. Now, we repent for our sins. Have mercy on our country and nation.
• We repent for not having been able to protect our children and teenagers from atheist Communist ideology, and for letting them believe that North Korea is not our opponent, but an ally with whom we should cooperate. Now, we repent for our sins. Have mercy on our country and nation.
• We repent for not having rooted out our country’s sins, including national rivalry, divisiveness, and unions’ incitement to strike. Now, we repent for our sins. Have mercy on our country and nation.

(179-182)
(2) All Churches

• Forgive all pastors and church leaders for excluding prayer and repentance from churches.
• Forgive all pastors and church leaders for pursuing fame and public acknowledgment over guidance by the Holy Spirit.
• Lead all pastors and church leaders to repent for making idols of themselves, for their congregations to follow.
• Lead all pastors and church leaders to repent for making churches into big business centers and not the bodies of Christ.
• Forgive the pastors who run their churches for money. Forgive the seminaries and professors that corrupt the Gospel with their liberal theology.
• Forgive the pastors and congregations that do not fear the Word and You.
• Forgive the pastors and church leaders who deny the work of the Holy Spirit, as well as the congregations that follow their teachings.
• We repent for allowing into the church the spirits of lies and divisiveness, which have incited squabbles and troubles among the congregation, even ending up in court. We repent for our sins. Have mercy on all the churches in Korea.
• We repent for adopting philosophy and psychology in the church so that our churches overflow with intellectual lectures that nourish only our soul and flesh, instead of Biblical sermons that nourish our spirits. Have mercy on all the churches in Korea.
• We repent for having lost our faith in our Heavenly hopes of Your return. Our churches have become filled with prosperity Gospels that focus on worldly possessions and success.
• We repent for failing to point out sin, proclaiming Heaven and Hell’s existence, and preaching Your return. We repent for allowing humanistic false prophet-like ministries to run rampant in our country. Have mercy on all the churches in Korea.
• You raised our country from the ashes of war, when we were a small country of hopeless people with limited natural resources. You blessed our nation with wealth, a strong economy, and culture. But we deceived ourselves into believing that our nation’s growth was a result of our own intelligence, abilities, and strength. We repent for our arrogance and unfaithfulness.
• We forgot that Your grace, mercy, and kindness were what grew our nation and church. Father God, we repent for our ingratitude. Forgive us.
• We repent for not having kept the precious Gospel that was earned by the suffering and deaths of missionaries. We repent for failing to pray vigilantly and thus allowing sin and evil spirits to enter our churches. Forgive us.
• Father, have mercy on us. Have mercy on our nation, country, and church. Give us another chance. We truly want to return to You. Have mercy and grace on the nation that You established. Have mercy on our church, the body of Christ. Let blow the winds of repentance throughout the nation. In the name of our merciful and loving Jesus Christ, Amen.

(182-183)
(3) North Korea

• Forgive me for ignoring the prayers of the underground churches in North Korea, and for dismissing them as far-away and distant matters.
• While North Koreans are spiritually deeper, closer to You, and more desperate for You, we have become spiritually blind, only concerning ourselves with filling our own bellies. We have greatly sinned against You. Forgive us with Your mercy, and let us awake and pray.
• You have watched our compatriots in North Korea, who were made in Your image, suffer greatly under inhumane circumstances. Deliver them with the Gospel of Christ.
• Deliver North Korea from idolatry and the slavery of communist ideology. Let them worship You Jesus Christ, the true son of God.
• Let our nation reunify quickly according to Your plans by the power of Your mercy and grace. Let us exalt and praise You for Your glory.
• During the cold winter, protect the North Korean refugees and exiles. Send Your angels to support and help them.
• Lead the North Korean refugees to accept the Gospel, safely enter South Korea, and adjust well into the free market economic system.
• Change the minds and plans of North Korea’s political leaders so they may turn away from the use of nuclear weapons.
• Block the foolish thoughts of North Korean sympathizers in South Korea. Let them fear the truth and obey Your Word.

(184)
(4) Christians’ Repentance

• You told us Christians to be awake and vigilant during the End Times, but we have been asleep more than spiritually awake. Forgive our disobedience to Your Word and our faithlessness.
• We have spent more time thinking about what to eat, drink, and wear than seeking Your Kingdom and righteousness. Forgive my faithlessness.
• Lord, let me live according to Your way, and not by the ways of the world.
• Loving Lord, help me lead a life I will not be ashamed of. Let me be honest, pure, and holy.
• Rather than seek the approval of others, let me fear You and seek Your approval so that I may live as a sincere Christian. I ask for Your forgiveness and mercy.

(185-187)
Prayers for America
“Beware that you do not forget the Lord your God by not keeping His commandments, His judgments, and His statutes which I command you today, lest—when you have eaten and are full, and have built beautiful houses and dwell in them; and when your herds and your flocks multiply, and your silver and your gold are multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied; when your heart is lifted up, and you forget the Lord your God...” (Deuteronomy 8:11-14)

• I repent for not having prayed for America earlier.
• Help not only me to sincerely repent, but also American churches and Korean churches in America.
• We American and Korean churches repent for our corruption by humanism, individualism, materialism, and secularism.
• Let the American President and all White House staff members fear You, the Creator and sovereign God who reigns with righteousness and love.
• Let all governors, mayors, and officers of local governments carry out their duties responsibly as bondservants according to Your Word of truth.
• Let the judges, prosecutors, and lawyers of the Supreme Court, state courts, and local courts conduct themselves honestly and righteously, avoiding injustice and compromise. Let them practice law according to Your Word.
• Let the Senate and House of Representatives fear You and create laws according to the Scripture.
• Of the current 114th Congress, 57.2% of these Congress members are Protestant Christians. Let them be used for Your glory.
• In the End Times, pour Your anointing oil upon all the spiritual leaders of Korean and American churches so they may awaken. Bless their families and ministries.
• Strengthen all ministry organizations in America, and protect and bless all the missionaries they send out.
• Protect and bless the missionaries sent out by America to dangerous mission fields, where they face persecution.
• Let the children of immigrants and the next generation in America encounter You by Your grace.
• Let these younger generations repent, reconcile with their parents, and become servants for Your Kingdom.
• Let all churches and Christians in America awake and pray vigilantly in preparation for Christ’s second coming.
• Block demonic powers from growing in America, and protect the country from extremists and terrorists.
• Let America find solutions in Christ to create a multicultural, multiracial nation (John 17:22, Revelation 7:9).
• Let America receive the blessings of following in the footsteps of her forefathers, who helped Israel and sent out numerous missionaries over the years.
• Let all churches love Christ more, believe in the Gospel, and obey Your Word so they may be transformed.
In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ we pray, Amen.

(189-190)
Worship

Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive all praise.
“Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God, for true and just are His judgments... Hallelujah! For our Lord God Almighty reigns. Let us rejoice and be glad and give Him glory!” (Revelation 19:1-2, 6-7)

We praise You as the One who declares Your greatness and glory in Creation. The heavens that are pitched like a tent for the sun speak of Your vastness. The sun that never ceases to rise, then set, speaks of Your faithfulness. The billions of stars that sparkle like diamonds in the dark expanse of the night sky reveal Your vast, personal knowledge, as You call each one by name. The boundaries on the shore that You set for the waves of the sea speak of Your laws that are for our good. The sparrows that you see fall, and the lilies that You clothe, point to Your compassionate, individualized, personal attention.

We praise You as our Creator, for we are wonderfully and fearfully made in Your image, with a capacity to know You in a personal relationship. You know our thoughts before they become words. You numbered our days and recorded them before we were born. You know when we go out, and when we come in. When we rise and when we lie down.

We worship You, the Lamb who was slain, who alone is worthy of all praise. Our hearts yearn for the day when we will be gathered around Your Throne and see with our own eyes the angels and people whose numbers are too great to count, and hear with our own ears the multitude crying out in such unity that they sound as one loud voice... Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise. The entire Universe will roar in acclamation and praise of You!

I worship You ________________.

Suggestion: Use Scripture to help you give expression to your worship, such as Psalm 19, 23, 24, 27, 46, 91; Isaiah 40; Revelation 5; and others of your own choosing.

Repentance

Merciful Savior,
I am so slow to learn,
So prone to forget,
So weak to climb;
I am in the foothills when I should be on the heights;
I am pained by my graceless heart,
My prayerless days,
My poverty of love,
My sloth in the Heavenly race,
My sullied conscience,
My wasted hours,
My unspent opportunities,
I am blind while light shines around me:
Take the scales from my eyes,
Grind to dust the evil heart of unbelief.
For the glory of Your name.
Amen.

_Suggestion:_ To aid in your repentance, read the following check-list three times all the way through. In the third reading, repent of the sin that God brings to your attention.

_Ingratitude:_ Neglecting to thank God for an answered prayer or a blessing. I repent.
_Neglect of Bible reading:_ Keeping the Bible closed, or reading it without focus. I repent.
_Unbelief:_ Doubting who God is and what God has said. I repent.
_Prayerlessness:_ Spiritually chattering, daydreaming, and fantasizing instead of fervently praying. I repent.
_Unconcern for the lost:_ Leaving evangelism to the “professionals.” I repent.
_Hypocrisy:_ Pretending to be more spiritual than I am, or anything I am not. I repent.
_Pride:_ Impressed with my own reputation and accomplishments; offended and resentful when someone else receives more attention. I repent.
_Envy:_ Jealousy of those more gifted and fruitful and recognizable than I am. I repent.
_Critical spirit:_ Finding fault with someone because he or she doesn’t measure up to my standards. I repent.
_Slander:_ Telling the truth about someone, with the intention of causing others to think less of him or her. I repent.
_Lying:_ Making a statement, exaggerating, or inferring something that is contrary to the unvarnished truth. I repent.
_Cheating:_ Not doing to others what I expect or demand them to do for me. I repent.
_Robbing God:_ Exercising my gifts or spending my time, money or energy on things that have a selfish goal, without asking God first. I repent.
_Fear:_ For being so afraid of what others think and say that I remain silent, hiding the light of Your Gospel under the basket of intimidation. I repent.

I repent of ________________________

Before thy cross I kneel and see the heinousness of my sin,
My iniquity that caused thee to be ‘made a curse,’
The evil that excites the severity of divine wrath.
Show me the enormity of my guilt by the crown of thorns, the pierced hands and feet,
the bruised body, the dying cries.
Thy blood is the blood of incarnate God,
Its worth infinite, its value beyond all thought.
Infinite must be the evil and guilt that demands such a price.
I am so sorry. Amen.

Suggestion: Read Psalm 51

(200-201)
Thanksgiving

Beloved Son of the Father, thank You for the Cross.
That You that Your blood is just as powerful today as it was 2000 years ago when the first drop was shed on Calvary.
Thank You that through Your blood we have redemption and the forgiveness of our sins.
Thank You that You cleanse us of all unrighteousness when we use the same labels for sin that
You do, as we humbly and honestly confess our sins to You.
Thank You that our sin is nailed to the Cross, and we no longer bear its penalty or guilt.
Thank You that You invite forgiven sinners to draw near to You with a sincere heart, in full assurance of faith.
Thank You that we can ask according to Your will, knowing that You hear us.

Suggestion: Read Philippians 4:6, Psalm 100

*Heavenly Father, blessed Son, eternal Spirit, I adore Thee as one Being, one Essence, one God in three distinct Persons, for bringing sinners to Thy knowledge and to Thy Kingdom.
O Father, Thou hast loved me and sent Jesus to redeem me.
Jesus, Thou hast loved me and assumed my nature,
Shed Thine own blood to wash away my sins,
Wrought righteousness to cover my unworthiness.
O Holy Spirit, Thou hast loved me and entered my heart,
Implanted there eternal life,
Revealed to me the glories of Jesus.*

*Three Persons and one God, I bless and praise thee,
For love so unmerited, so unspeakable, so wondrous,
So might to save the lost and raise them to glory.*

*O Father, Thou art enthroned to hear my prayers,
O Jesus, Their hand is outstretched to take my petitions,
O Holy Spirit, Thou art willing to help my infirmities,*
To show me my need, to supply words, to pray within me,
To strengthen me that I faint not in supplication.
O Triune God, who commandeth the universe,
Thou hast commanded me to ask for those things
That concern Thy Kingdom and my soul.
I look to You now, for the glory of Your name.
Amen.

Intercession for Protection and Deliverance from Evil

We hear the hiss of that Old Serpent, the devil...
In the lies, blasphemies, and profanities that bombard our ears.
In the denial of Your existence as the Creator and Supreme Lord of the Universe.
In the refusal to acknowledge and thank You for the blessings we have received,
And instead give credit to our own ingenuity, knowledge, technology, and might.
In the rejection of Your commandments, Your Word, Your Gospel, and Your people.
We see the Old Serpent’s movements...
As the innocent are slaughtered,
As bullies seize power and people, terrorizing the weak,
As nations rise against nations,
As treaties and covenants are shattered,
As children are abused and exploited,
As drugs and alcohol stupefy bright minds and enslave lives,
As women are debased,
As men cower,
As generational hatreds and prejudices are kept smoldering.
We succumb to the Old Serpent’s tactics by being...
Too busy to pray,
Too sophisticated to read our Bibles,
Too proud to acknowledge, confess, and repent of our sin,
Too tolerant to share the Gospel.
And therefore,
Too deceived to discern the Truth. That the devil is real.
He is a roaring lion who can appear as an angel of light, seeking to deceive us, weaken us, distract us, divide us, devour us, and ultimately, destroy us.

But no more. Not on this 7th day of prayer. Not today. We have been worshipping You. Confessing our sin. So on this day, as Your mighty army, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lion of Judah, the Captain of the Lord’s Host, we come against the devil, his demons, and all those he is using for his evil purposes. We command the evil and unloving spirits to be bound, confused, and powerless. We command that the evil strategies and plans against Your people that the enemy is plotting would be thwarted, and that all the enemy intends for us will fall back on himself. We lift high the Cross as our battle standard.

Protect and deliver us from evil, we earnestly pray. Give us the confidence that more are they who are with us, than they who are with them. That greater are You within us than any evil one who is in our world. Use us to rescue those who are in the enemy’s grip, to snatch them from the fire.

Most Holy Father, we ask that Your Kingdom come, Your Will be done here on earth as it is done there, in Heaven. Shine Your Light into the deep recesses of our world where the enemy seems to rule: the gulags, killing fields, prisons, religious institutions, covens, brothels, and places too terrible to name. Reveal to us how to resist and overcome evil. Help us to strengthen others to stand with us, shoulder to shoulder against evil.

Suggestion: Read Ephesians 6:10-18

_O Lord,_
*I bless Thee that the issue of the battle_
_Between Thyself and Satan_
_Has never been uncertain_
_And will end in victory._
_Calvary broke the dragon’s head,_
_And I contend with a vanquished foe,_
_Who with all his subtlety and strength_
_Has already been overcome._
_When I feel the serpent at my heel_
_May I remember Him whose heel was bruised,_
_But who, when bruised, broke the devil’s head._

*My soul with inward joy extols the mighty Conqueror._

*Heal me of any wounds received in the great conflict;*_
*If I have gathered defilement,*_
*If my faith has suffered damage,*_
*If my hope is less than bright,*_
*If my love is not fervent,*_
If some creature-comfort occupies my heart,
If my soul sinks under pressure of the fight.

O Thou whose every promise is balm, every touch life,
Draw near to Thy weary warrior,
Refresh me, that I may rise again to wage the strife,
And never tire until my enemy is trodden down.
Give me such fellowship with Thee
That I may defy Satan, unbelief, the flesh, the world,
With delight that comes not from a creature, and which a creature cannot mar.
Give me a draught of the eternal fountain
That lieth in Thy immutable, everlasting love and decree.
Then shall my hand never weaken,
My feet never stumble,
My sword never rest,
My shield never rust,
My helmet never shatter,
My breastplate never fall,
As my strength rests in the power of Thy might.
Amen.

Intercession for the Exaltation of Jesus

Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
We pray that Your Son would be exalted first, within our own hearts, then in our own families, churches and nation. Jesus promised that when He is lifted up, He will draw all people to Himself. We boldly ask that You do whatever it takes to compel Your people to present the Gospel without compromise. Turn the hearts of Your people back to worship and magnify Him, so that as the world observes us, they will be drawn to Him. Use the problems, pressures, and pain; the trails, trouble, and trauma we experience as a showcase for His glory, so that when others see our love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, meekness, and self-control they will know they are seeing Jesus in us, and want to know Him, too.

O Lord God,
Thou has commanded me to believe in Jesus,
And I would flee to no other refuge,
Wash in no other fountain,
Build on no other foundation,
Receive from no other fullness,
Rest in no other relief.

His water and blood were not severed in their flow at the Cross,
May they never be separated in my creed and experiences.
May I be equally convinced of the guilt and pollution of sin,
Feel my need of a prince and savior;
Implore of Him repentance as well as forgiveness,
Love holiness,
Be pure in heart,
Have the mind of Jesus,
And tread in His steps.
I rejoice that I am under the care of one who is too wise to err,
Too kind to injure,
Too tender to crush.

May we, Your people, be bold to speak the strong and mighty name of Jesus, follow His example, and share in His sufferings. Raise up a Body of believers to be a beacon of His Light, a herald of His Good News, a demonstration of His love, a trumpeter of His truth, a healer of hurting hearts offering His comfort, and an ambassador of His peace. May we be the salt and light You commanded us to be. Purify us. Make us ready as a glorious Bride, without spot or blemish, to greet our Bridegroom without being ashamed when He comes. And use us to announce the Hope of His coming. May we not waste a moment in inviting all to live with You forever, clearly explaining to them how to get right with You at the Cross.

I boldly ask __________________________.

Intercession for an Outpouring of the Holy Spirit

Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord rises upon you. See, darkness covers the earth and thick darkness is over the peoples, but the Lord rises upon you and His glory appears over you... Isaiah 60:1-2

O God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, we long for Your glory to rise upon Your people. You are the same One to whom Elijah called on Mount Carmel. Elijah obeyed You when he confronted the evil of his day. He depended upon You when he confronted wicked King Ahab and the priests of Baal, built the altar, then soaked it in water. He expected You to honor his obedience and dependence when he publicly called down fire from Heaven. And the fire fell! O God of Elijah! Do it again! You are the Great I AM, the One who is the same yesterday as You are today, and forever will be.

We are asking You for an outpouring of Your Spirit on us, our families, our churches, and our nation.
Send down Your Spirit in Pentecostal fullness!
Captivate us by Your love!
Rend our hearts with deep conviction and sorrow for our sin!
Revive our hearts, filling us with abundant life!
Ignite our hearts with a pure and holy passion to love You and to live our lives for You, and Your glory, alone!
Then use us to bring revival to the hearts of Your people!
And use us, the revived Church, as a messenger of salvation for those who are coming under Your judgment.

We are asking You to saturate us in Your holiness, purity, righteousness, justice, power, mercy, grace, truth, and love.
Saturate us in Yourself.
We are asking You to revive the confidence of our faith and the authenticity of our personal relationship with You.
We are asking for one more great spiritual awakening before Jesus returns.
O Lord God, we have been obedient. We have been dependent. Now let the Fire of the Holy Spirit fall!

Praise and Worship

Great Covenant-keeping God. All of Your promises are trustworthy and true. All of life’s questions are answered in You. You are the Answer. You are the Source of all life. The Sustainer of all things. In You we have life.

We worship You as the Fountainhead of all blessing, the Source of all life, the Wellspring of wisdom, the Key to knowledge, the Foundation of faith, the Doorway to glory. We worship You as the One who supplies strength to the weary, increases power to the faint, and offers escape to the tempted.
We worship You as the One who sympathizes with the hurting, shields the defenseless, enriches the poor, sustains the helpless, and shelters the homeless.
You give purpose to the aimless, comfort to the lonely, fruit to the barren, beauty to the meek, a future to the hopeless, and Life to the lifeless!

_Suggestion:_ Reread all the worship sections of the previous six days of prayer.
Write out your own prayer of praise and worship.

We worship You as the One who was slain to purchase people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation. When at last You assert Your right to rule and reign on the earth, fulfilling Your Father’s redemption plan, the golden bowls of incense, which are the prayers of the saints, will be full. (Revelation 5:8) It will be then that the Throne room in Heaven will be filled with the sound of a new song. We join our voices with the multitudes in Heaven as we sing our praise and worship to You now...

_Suggestion:_ If you have access to a hymnbook, or to praise music, use it now to worship the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
We believe that our prayers to You have been collected in the golden bowls that are even now filling with the incense of our praise and worship. We believe this may be the last prayer necessary to fill the bowls completely to the brim, ushering You visibly onto the world stage once again, this time in power and glory.

You are Lord of lords and King of kings. We worship You as the Alpha and the Omega. The Beginning and the End. Human history began in response to Your powerful Word; and human history, as we know it, will end with Your loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the blast of Your trumpet. You will raise to life the dead who had placed their faith in You. Then suddenly, in the twinkling of an eye, we, Your people; we, who love and trust You; we who remain alive on the earth; we will be caught up together in the air with You and the risen dead, and we will live forever in our Heavenly Home. With You! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! For our Lord God Almighty reigns. Let us rejoice and be glad and give Him glory! Even so, come quickly, Lord Jesus!
